

New York Foundation for Senior Citizens

Home Sharing Program Testimonials

Thinking of becoming a Home Sharing host or guest? Here are some thoughts from those who are participating in the program.

“The Home Sharing Program has been helpful to me. They screen for people that are nice and reliable. They managed to get me a very compatible sharemate.” I don’t feel alone anymore and it helps financially.

Freda Schaeffer, Home Sharing Host, Brooklyn

“The notion of sharing for senior citizens is fantastic. The way it was done was really smooth and comfortable, and it has also helped me meet people I may not otherwise have met.”

Paul Covington, Home Sharing Host, Manhattan (as told to The New York Post)

“Getting a roommate at my age certainly required some mental adjustment. But sharing my home has been wonderful in so many ways.”

Shazzi Felstein, Home Sharing Host, Manhattan (as told to The New York Times)

“Last April, I sought your help with what, at the time, was my pressing need for suitable housing. Upon submitting references and proof of income, I was promptly and professionally interviewed by New York Foundation for Senior Citizens’ social workers. To my surprise, they alerted me to an opportunity to address my needs in the borough of Manhattan, a compelling need of mine. Indeed, within another 48 hours, I was able to visit the subject apartment and the hostess, finding the situation suitable and the hostess most amiable.

Carlos B. Rosas, Home Sharing Guest, Manhattan

For more information, call 212-962-7559 or email: esofield@nyfscgs.org